

September 27, 2019

DPM Energy Inc. places No. 316 on The Globe and Mail's brand-new ranking of Canada's Top Growing Companies

Vaughan, Ontario

DPM Energy Inc. is pleased to announce it placed No. 316 on the inaugural Report on Business ranking of Canada's Top Growing Companies.

Canada's Top Growing Companies ranks Canadian companies on three-year revenue growth. DPM Energy Inc. earned its spot with three-year growth of 80%.

"DPM Energy is honoured to be on the inaugural Top Growing Companies," says President Nick A. Iozzo. "This achievement reflects the dedication of our team and the strength of the relationships we have built with our clients. Our staff works hard to continuously expand their knowledge. This year we saw a lot of growth, both physical with the addition to our second office space to the size of the projects we are involved with. Our staff have risen to the complexity of being more involved in the P3 (Public Private Partnerships) space and we cannot wait to see what this year brings us."

DPM is based in the Greater Toronto Area and concentrates all its efforts on providing services to the Local Distribution Company (LDC) and Municipal Sector in the areas of power delivery and area lighting. We are one of the largest service providers that focus solely on this sector. With over 50 dedicated professionals and growing, they have developed a list of loyal and respected clients.

Launched in 2019, the Canada's Top Growing Companies ranking program aims to celebrate entrepreneurial achievement in Canada by identifying and amplifying the success of growth-minded, independent businesses in Canada. It is a voluntary program; companies had to complete an in-depth application process in order to qualify. In total, 400 companies made the ranking this year.

The full list of 2019 winners, and accompanying editorial coverage, is published in the October issue of Report on Business magazine—out now—and online at tgam.ca/TopGrowing.

"We created the Canada's Top Growing Companies program because we believe there is much Report on Business readers can learn from the successes of the country's best entrepreneurs," says Derek DeCloet, Editor of Report on Business and Executive Editor at The Globe and Mail. "We're excited to be telling their stories."

"The 400 companies on the inaugural Report on Business ranking of Canada's Top Growing Companies ranking demonstrate ambition, innovation and tremendous business acumen," says Phillip Crawley, Publisher and CEO of The Globe and Mail. "Their contributions to the economy help to make Canada a better place and warrant commendation."

About DPM Energy Inc.

DPM Energy was created to leverage the 100 plus years of utility experience of DPM's executive team. Building on their experience, DPM has grown to provide services to several private and public-sector clients such as public utilities, municipal and regional governments, and commercial industrial and residential developers. DPM Energy staff is experienced in managing small projects requiring limited resources, to large complex projects requiring the co-ordination of resources from other consultants.

About The Globe and Mail

The Globe and Mail is Canada's foremost news media company, leading the national discussion and causing policy change through brave and independent journalism since 1844. With our award-winning coverage of business, politics and national affairs, The Globe and Mail newspaper reaches 6.6 million readers every week in our print or digital formats, and Report on Business magazine reaches 1.8 million readers in print and digital every issue. Our investment in innovative data science means that as the world continues to change, so does The Globe. The Globe and Mail is owned by Woodbridge, the investment arm of the Thomson family.